

Together with the NCAA,
Title IX guarantees

EQUAL EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY

to pregnant and parenting students.

This means that student-athletes cannot be discriminated against in the event of their pregnancy, childbirth, conditions related to pregnancy and more.

Furthermore, they must be offered reinstatement to the same position after pregnancy as they hold before the onset of pregnancy.

Title IX guarantees your protection from the threat of lost opportunity or financial assistance due to pregnancy.

YOU HAVE A RIGHT

to continue the use of campus facilities and participation in campus activities if pregnant.

This means that pregnant students cannot be barred from activities enjoyed by fellow students, including but not limited to club memberships, academic programs, and intramural activities.

Pregnant students should not be barred from utilizing campus housing and, upon birth of their child, should be permitted to make their own decisions regarding off-campus housing.

Together with the NCAA,
Title IX guarantees

YOUR PROTECTION

from the threat of lost
opportunity due
to pregnancy.

This means that student directors,
coaches, and academic advisors
may not bully students into abortion, threatening loss of future or present opportunity, in the event of pregnancy.

YOUR PROTECTION

from the threat of lost
opportunity or financial assistance due to pregnancy.

This means that professors and other staff may not punish pregnant students as a result of a medically necessary absence.

As long as you are in good academic standing with the university and do not voluntarily withdraw from your team or classes, pregnant students cannot have their academic or athletic scholarships revoked due to pregnancy or be subject to penalty regarding any other type of financial aid.
